The Proceedings in Both Houses of Congress.

RAIDING NEW YORK BLOODS.

Fast a Bankruptcy Law—The Insane Dodge—The Huntington Suit—Women's Suffrage.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—The House committee on postoffices and postroads will next Friday consider the various bills relating to the reduction of newspaper postage. The committee is in receipt of a memorial in the subject prepared by Messrs. Morrissey, Mumford, D. R. Logan and Wm. Penn Nixon, a committee representing the newspaper publishers of the west and northwest. This committee was appointed at a special meeting of the Associated Press, held in Detroit to call the attention of Congress to the inequalities of the postal laws bearing on the rate charged for newspapers and periodicals. The memorial, in part: "Newspaper publishers are not mendicants, but they claim to have such relations to the diffusion of light and knowledge among the people which we understand was one of the objects for which the postal department of government was created, as gives them the right to demand a fair hearing and just treatment. The inequality in the law referred to above would, to a stranger to our institutions, indicate that the government looked with disfavor on all publications circulating beyond the confines of the country in which they are published. We certainly understand such is not the case, but believe it will be unwise for Congress to permit such inconsistency to remain on our statute books. We hope you will add nothing to the burdens of publishers now free, but ask that you will diminish the burdens of those for whom we speak."

After the Gamblers.

New York, January 20.—Gen. Fitz John Porter, police commissioner, has been acquainting himself with the gambling dens of New York, with a view to their suppression. He employed two detectives from Newark, N. J., to find out where games were in operation and paid the men out of his own pocket. Porter, with a large number of his men, raided a dozen up-town fashionable gambling houses to-night, and captured a large amount of contraband property in the shape of cards, checks, furo and other by-ots. Many keepers of houses had evidently been warned and were out of reach of the officers. Eugene Case, No. 6 West Twenty-ninth street, and Dave Johnson, No. 6 West Twenty-ninth street were arrested for running games, but were bailed.

Want a Bankruptcy Law.

New York, January 20.—At a joint meeting of the committees on the national bankruptcy law, the chamber of commerce, board of trade and the bar association and the executive committee of the national bankruptcy law convention, held to-day, a committee was appointed to urge Congress to take up the bankruptcy bill on February 2d. The meeting also adopted a resolution, "respectfully urging the members of Congress from this State, and especially those by whose absence on the 5th inst. the bill was defeated, to use every means in their power to secure the passage of the Senate bankruptcy bill before the close of the present Congress."

Jewish Conference.

New York, January 20.—The conference of Jewish ministers from this and other cities ended to-day. The next meeting will be held on the 13th of April, at Philadelphia. Essays were read by Rev. T. Marala, of Philadelphia, on "The Work and Scope of the Alliance Israelite University," and by Rev. H. S. Jacobs, on "The Outlook."

Women's Suffrage.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—An executive session of the Woman's Suffrage Association was held at the Riggs House to-day. Various reports were made, and Mrs. Shattuck presented the responsibility involved in the question of woman suffrage. At the evening session addresses were delivered by Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Matilda Joselyn Gage and Laura De Force Gordon.

The Wisconsin Senatorship.

MADISON, Wis., January 20.—The senatorship contest was virtually ended to-night, when, at the caucus of the supporters of Colonel James W. Spooner, forty-eight members responded to the roll call. Forty-one is the majority and General Fairchild's managers say there will be no obstruction in the Republican caucus to-morrow.

Commissioner Elected.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 20.—The Transcontinental Railway Association elected W. M. Smith, Commissioner. Smith is a general manager of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad. If he is elected the association adjourns sine die.

"Buchu-Falbas"

Quick, complete cure, all Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, Scalding, Irritation, Stone, Gravel, Catarrh of the Bladder, &c. Druggists.

The Huntington Suit.

NEW YORK, January 20.—In the Paton-Huntington suit this afternoon the defendant, C. P. Huntington, testified that the Central Pacific was organized in 1863, and work began two or three years later. Its original capital, $3,500,000, was increased to $20,000,000 in 1864, and later to $100,000,000. In 1870 witness had a talk with Paton, Stewart and Aspinwall as to the purchase of their stock. Their testimony and witness' memory of the conversation between them differed materially. The talk occurred in April, 1870. At the interview with Thomas Paton, witness told him he would give par and interest for his stock. Witness afterwards saw William Paton, and told him he would pay him the same that he had offered Thomas. They wanted to consult with Stewart and Aspinwall and see witness later. Stewart and Aspinwall came to witness' office and he offered par and 7 per cent. interest for the time they had held it. The arrangement was made and Aspinwall sent round 900 shares of stock and they were paid for, partly in cash and in first mortgage bonds of the Central Pacific. Then Agnew came and asked if they could get back their stock if they wanted it, and witness said yes, he would give it back any time within the next six months. Witness never said there was an over issue, but told them the road was costing much more than was expected, and very much more stock had been issued than was intended at the outset. Witness then paid for all the shares referred to as detailed by Agnew. The case is still on.

Huntington testified that he bought stock on his own account and that neither Hopkins, Stanford or Crocker had any interest in it. The bonds given Aspinwall, whom he did not know, were mortgage six per cents; he was never in the office of the Contract and Finance company, but was very certain the company was most always in debt. In June, 1870, witness heard of some trouble about the Lombard & Brennan suits from Governor Sanford, and advised the Governor to settle, but subsequently reversed his advice. On cross-examination, by Mr. Choate, Huntington acknowledged the receipt of notices to produce the books of the Contract and Finance company and all the messages from Crocker, Hopkins and Stanford, but had only looked in his office desk for them. He produced none. Since the beginning of these suits, witness had advised that the books and papers of the company be destroyed to save the room and rent necessary for keeping them. Witness would not swear that he did not receive $3,000,000 as his share of the assets of the company. Had made no record of what he received. He had destroyed his letter-press book of 1870.

Mr. Choate asked: Why did you write Stanford or Hopkins about the settlement with Stewart and others, if they had no right to anything? Witness—I knew they wanted money and that they loved money, and I was willing to chip in and give them some, and I would ask anybody to chip in. We are associates—that is, friends—but I don't think I owed them anything and I don't think they thought I owed them anything until a long time after the transaction. (Laughter.)

Tax Suit Decided.

ALBANY, January 20.—The Court of Appeals gave a decision to-day in the case of the comptroller against the Gold and Stock Telegraph Company, the Western Union Telegraph Company and others, for taxes on their capital stock. The companies alleged that they should not pay taxes on their full capital stock, because a portion of it was used in other States. The action was taken to the Court of Appeals by the telegraph company, on an appeal from the judgment in the lower courts for principal and interest. The higher court modifies the judgment below, taking off the interest, and thus modified, affirms the judgment.

The Insane Dodge.

NEW LONDON, Conn., January 20.—The case of John P. Kennedy, who murdered his wife in this city, in June last, was continued, to await the arrival of a deposition from Stockton, Cal., showing that Kennedy's mother is insane, and that he is afflicted with hereditary insanity.

Won't Court Martial Him.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—The Secretary of War has declined to order a court martial for the trial of Chief Signal Officer Hazen on the charges preferred by Lieut. Garlington, and has decided to take no further action regarding the Greely relief expedition.

For and Against.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 20.—The Chamber of Commerce, at its annual meeting to-day, passed resolutions protesting against the confirmation of the Spanish-American treaty, and strongly urging the ratification of the Nicaraguan.

A K. of St. P.

DUBLIN, January 20.—Prince Albert Victor will be created a Knight of St. Patrick at the coming anniversary of Ireland's patron saint. Preparations for the event are being made on a scale of unusual splendor.

Florida's Senator.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., January 20.—Williamson Call was to-day elected United States Senator. The vote will be officially declared at the joint session to-morrow.

COMPOSED OF GENUINE FRENCH GRAPE BRANDY, Extract of Smart-Weed and Jamaica Ginger, with Camphor Water. Dr. Price's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed excels as a remedy for colic, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery or bloody-flux, or to break up colds, fevers or inflammatory attacks.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—Plumb offered a preamble and resolution which went over until to-morrow. The preamble sets forth that widely extended belief prevails that the unoccupied lands of Indian Territory are subject to settlement, but the President does not concur in such opinion, and considers it his duty to remove by military force those persons now on the land, and in consequence there seems to be danger of a conflict; therefore,

Resolved, That the President be requested to advise the Senate as to the status of the lands in question, as viewed by the executive action taken, if any, to expel persons seeking to settle thereon, and the reasons for the same, together with any other information in his possession bearing upon the existing controversy.

Colquitt presented the credentials of Jos. E. Brown, re-elected Senator from Georgia. Referred.

A bill was reported favorably from the committee on public lands, to provide that whenever lands have been withdrawn from sale because of grants made to aid internal improvements and such withdrawals have been afterwards terminated, or where lands have been reduced in price to $1.25 per acre and such lands have been purchased in good faith, and patents therefor, without having been first proclaimed by the President, such patents shall be valid, where, on the 25th of January, 1885, there are no conflicting claims.

The Senate resumed consideration of the inter-State commerce bill, the House bill, the Reagan bill, so-called, having been already in the Senate, was read twice by its title and placed on the calendar and read in full.

Beck moved to amend the inter-State commerce bill by striking from the first section the provisions regarding the discriminations in passenger accommodations and discrimination on account of color. This would leave the bill, he said, in the condition in which it had been originally brought into the House by Reagan. Beck said he would also move to amend the bill so as to prohibit railroads from charging more for carrying freights over a part of their line than they charge for carrying them over the whole length of the line.

A message from the President was laid before the Senate, transmitting the information relating to foreign commerce with Mexico, Central and South America, Spanish West Indies, Hayti, San Domingo, and the share of the United States therein.

Executive session. Adjourned.

The House.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—Oates, from the committee on public lands, reported a bill prohibiting aliens or foreigners from acquiring title or owning any lands in the United States. House calendar.

Hewitt, N. Y., from the committee on ways and means, reported a bill amending section 3019, Revised Statutes, so it will read as follows: Section 3019.—There shall be allowed on all articles wholly manufactured of materials imported or on which the duties have been paid when exported, a drawback equal in amount to the duty paid on such materials, and no more to be ascertained under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and all provisions of law inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. Committee of the whole.

After some opposition, the House went into committee of the whole (Wellborn in the chair) on the Indian appropriation bill.

As a tribute to the memory of the late Evans, of South Carolina, the House adjourned.

Acquitted.

WICHITA, Kas., January 20.—In the United States District Court to-day, Nellie C. Bailey was acquitted of the charge of murder of a wealthy Englishman named Bethamley, with whom she was traveling in Indian Territory, about a year ago. Defendant maintained that Bethamley shot himself, and there were no witnesses to the affair. The case was quite sensational, and the defendant has a romantic history. She is a handsome woman, well educated, and figured as a society belle at the eastern watering places. She has written a play, and during her confinement in jail has been engaged writing a novel. She has had three husbands, and gained notoriety by her adventures. The court room was crowded, and much interest was displayed.

The Reichstag.

BERLIN, January 20.—The Reichstag, to-day, after a long debate, adopted the naval estimates. The leaders of the Centre and German Liberal parties assented to the naval budget, but declared that their doing so did not prejudice their attitude toward the government's colonial policy, which they said had exceeded the limits mentioned by Bismarck in June last.

Bismarck opposed the demands for the new colonial policy. The National Liberals and Conservatives supported the government.

Divine Stealers.

NORFOLK, Va., January 20.—The Chesapeake, of the Virginia oyster navy, has captured seven schooners engaged in illegal dredging for oysters. The schooners and crews, sixty-eight men, were turned over to the sheriff. One schooner was brought to by a shot.

Burying the Wires.

ST. LOUIS, January 20.—A bill has been introduced in the lower house of the Legislature, requiring that telegraph and telephone wires shall be laid underground in all first class cities of the State.

Mum About Infectious Diseases.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The police commissioners to-day, at the request of the Board of Health, resolved not to give the newspapers information concerning cases of infectious diseases.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

The Business Transacted Last Evening.

THE FREE DELIVERY AT LAST.

No Baseball in the Tenth Ward—A Mysterious Bill—Petitions and Reports.

A very brief session of the City Council was held last evening, Mayor Sharp being in the chair.

PETITIONS.

L. Benites, proprietor of the Second South Street establishment, petitioned the Council for permission to transfer the unexpired portion of his liquor license to James Arizona and John Pistori. These gentlemen signed another petition echoing the wish of Mr. Benites. All were granted.

A communication was read from Jos. A. West, stating that he would arrive in the city last evening at 8 o'clock, and asking that a committee be appointed to meet him at the City Hall, for the purpose of conferring with him in relation to the references of principal points in Salt Lake City, to be made upon his forthcoming map.

Referred to the committee on finance, with authority to act.

REPORTS.

The recorder read the following communication:

SALT LAKE CITY, January 20, 1885.

Hon. the City Council of Salt Lake City: Gentlemen.—I have the honor to report that agreeable to your action of December 22d, 1884, referring to me the subject of making inquiry into the prospective establishment of the free postal delivery system in Salt Lake City, I addressed a letter to the Hon. John T. Cairne, at Washington, and in answer thereto received the following dispatch: WASHINGTON, D. C., January 17, 1885. Hon. James Sharp:

Postmaster-General has issued establishing free delivery system at Salt Lake, March 1st. Seven carriers, two mounted, fifty-six street boxes. The first territorial city granted free delivery. JOHN T. CAIRNE.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES SHARP, Mayor.

On motion, the communication was placed on file.

The report of Adam Speirs, Police Justice, for the month of December, 1884, was read; it shows eighty-four cases to have been tried and $791.50 to have been collected in cash and labor fines.

Referred to the committee on police.

The committee on the Jordan and Salt Lake City Canal reported that they had examined the watermaster's report for the quarter ending November 30th, 1884, and found it to be correct. Received and filed.

The committee on police reported that they had examined the report of the Police Court for the month of November and found it to be correct. Placed on file.

The committee on public grounds, to whom had been referred the petition of Andrew T. Case, asking that the Tenth Ward Square be leased him for 1885 on the same terms as he had paid in 1884; also in connection with this, the petition of A. M. Musser and others asking that a portion of the square be devoted to athletic and recreation purposes, filed their report; they state that in their opinion it would be injudicious at the present time to use any portion of the square for the purposes mentioned, and recommend that the petition of Mr. Case be granted.

The recommendations of the report were adopted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

An appropriation of $50 was made to meet a bill presented by Fred W. Taylor for services in the Assessor and Collector's office.

The recorder stated that he had received a bill against the city from the Deseret University for the sum of $200 "for analyses of waters in Dry Canyon and Red Butte during the first half of the year 1883." The announcement was received with some signs of surprise on the part of the Council. Mayor Sharp stated that he supposed it referred to something which occurred before the present Council came in, and the bill was referred to the committee on claims.

The sum of $25 was appropriated to pay the bill of Mrs. Ellen Kay, for three months rent of land.

Adjourned until Tuesday next.

Destructive Avalanches.

ROME, January 20.—News is received that a village in the highlands of Piedmont and Savoy has been devastated by avalanches. Three villages in Piedmont, including the important village of Trassino, have been buried under avalanches from the Piedmontese mountains. The town of Chaumont, in France, capital of the department of Haute-Marne, at the foot of the Vosges mountains, is partly overwhelmed with snow and many people there have been killed.

Another fatal avalanche occurred at Sparone, on the Dora Baltea River, a few miles south of Ivrea. Fifteen persons are known to be buried under the snow at Sparone. The villagers who have been made homeless are in great distress, and have appealed for relief from the royal treasury at Rome. Troops have been sent to assist the villagers.

Anthony's Successor.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 20.—Jonathan Chase was elected United States Senator to-day by the following votes: Chase 78, William P. Sheffield 6, Isaac Bell, Jr., of Newport, 22.

LIQUID SLATING for blackboards, SEARS & LITTLE'S.

SCOTT ANDERSON'S POSTERS.

Who "Carefully" Tore Them From the Walls?

SALT LAKE CITY, January 20th, 1885.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

On Saturday last, I procured from THE HERALD office a quantity of bills, announcing my lecture on "Mormonism" in the Walker Opera House, next Saturday evening. A large portion of these were put up, the same evening, in the usual way, and at the usual places. On Sunday morning, scarcely one could be seen, as they had been carefully torn down. This was not done by children, nor could it have been done by non-Mormons. Whoever did it was mean, contemptible and cowardly. Numbers of my old Mormon friends have (since my return) begged me not to speak on the subject in public. What are they afraid of? But they know themselves.

Yours respectfully,

SCOTT ANDERSON.

Mr. Scott Anderson does himself discredit and others injustice in the above mean insinuation. He also elevates himself into an importance which nothing that he has done entitles him to assume. The experience of the past few weeks should teach Mr. Scott Anderson that however earnest and however honest and however sincere he may be in his opposition to the Mormons, after all he is an insignificant and unimportant person in the eyes of others. The sensation which he created last fall was a thing of an hour, and had about as much effect upon the Mormons and the Mormon church as the fly did that rested on the horn of the ox. Perhaps some Mormon has torn down some of Mr. Scott Anderson's bills. Such a thing is among the possibilities, but why any Mormon should trouble himself about a matter of so little concern to him or his church as Mr. Scott Anderson's posters, is not clear, any more than it is clear why the bills could not have been torn down by non-Mormons. Have the Salt Lake Gentiles degenerated to such a degree in effeminacy that they are unable to tear a quarter sheet poster? THE HERALD, in all kindness, suggests to Mr. Scott Anderson that the further he keeps himself above petty meanness and unmanly insinuations, the nearer will he come to commanding respect. We would also suggest to Mr. Scott Anderson, if it were not for the fact that we do not care to hurt his feelings by diminishing himself in his own estimation, that it is barely possible the week of disrupting and overturning the Mormon church will not be accomplished by Mr. Scott Anderson.

THE WEARIED STOCK SPECULATOR.

Worried mind. Fevered brain. Dreadful day with unsettled market. Unable to get dinner after day's work. Vain efforts to rest at night. Horrid feelings in view of to-morrow. Body and mind want tending up. Brown's Iron Bitters does it, surely and quickly. Mr. Tooy, of Tavares, Orange Co., Florida, has experienced the benefit of this valuable remedy, and says, "I cheerfully recommend it. I keep it on hand all the time." Cures dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, etc.
